The Federal Campus Sexual Assault Victims' Bill of Rights

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (commonly referred to as the “Clery Act”), 20 U.S.C. § 1092(f), was named after a 19-year old freshman at Lehigh University who was raped and murdered in her campus dorm. The Clery Act requires colleges and universities receiving federal aid to: keep and disclose crime information from, on, or near campus (within the Clery geography); provide an Annual Security Report (“ASR”) by October 1st of each school year; maintain a crime log and crime statistics; have a policy to timely disclose emergencies or threats to the campus community; as well as have policies to handle reports of missing students. This law requires that all colleges and universities (both public and private) participating in federal student aid programs afford sexual assault victims certain basic rights.

The "Campus Sexual Assault Victims' Bill of Rights" exists as a part of the campus security reporting requirements under the Jeanne Clery Act.

- Survivors shall be informed of their options to notify law enforcement.
- Survivors shall be notified of counseling services.
- Survivors shall be notified of options for changing academic and living situations.
