CCC Adult Education GED® Testing Fee Scholarship

City Colleges of Chicago is providing a way to help students in good standing in the CCC Adult Education ABE/ASE program pay for the new GED® exam, which costs $120. The scholarship will provide up to $70 worth of vouchers to eligible students and who show readiness to pass at least 1 part of the GED® 2014 exam. Scholarship recipients will be responsible for paying up to $50 ($12.50 for each of the 4 subtests). We want to help you do your very best in your studies and prepare for college!

GED® Testing Fee Scholarship can NOT be used for any retests.

Do you qualify for the CCC Adult Education GED® Testing Fee Scholarship?

- Have you created a MyGED account at https://ged.com/?
- Have you scored “Likely to Pass” on at least 1 subtest of the GED Ready™ Official Practice Test (OPT) but not yet taken that subtest of the official 2014 GED®? You can receive up to a total of 4 vouchers if you have scored “Likely to Pass” on subtests not yet taken (not for retests).
- Have you NEVER received the GED® Testing Fee Scholarship from another City College of Chicago in subject areas not yet taken?
- Are you currently enrolled in an ASE level class and have you accumulated enough attendance hours (40) for a TABE post-test?
- Have you successfully completed at least one semester/session of Adult Education classes at City Colleges of Chicago?
- Are you able to schedule testing and pay $12.50 for each subtest with credit card/debit card/prepaid debit card if approved for the Scholarship?
- Are you least 18 years old?

Applicants may use the test fee scholarship only for subtests (subjects) of the GED® exam for which they have received a “Likely to Pass” score. Applicants awarded a scholarship toward at least one subtest as described above may apply for a scholarship for the remaining subtests by passing the OPT for those subjects as long as they are still enrolled in CCC ASE level classes, and have not yet taken those subjects of the Official GED® Exam, and meet all other eligibility requirements.

If you qualify, these are your next steps:

1. Visit the Adult Education office at your college to verify that you qualify.
2. Complete the GED® Testing Fee Scholarship Application.
3. Attach printouts of www.myged.com (“my scores” tab) to application. (See Appendix)
   - Scores MUST show “Likely to Pass” for at least 1 of the GED™ - Official Practice Tests (OPT) for subject area(s) on official GED® exam not yet taken.
4. Submit Application to Adult Education Office.
5. Get Adult Education staff approval and signature for scholarship.
6. Receive Voucher from Adult Education office AND schedule Official GED® exam for corresponding subject areas. (Voucher is only valid at one of the City Colleges of Chicago Pearson VUE testing centers.)
7. Take Official GED® subtests and pass.
8. Apply for remaining Official GED® subtests by passing OPT in those subject areas. Follow Steps 2-6.

GED® Testing Fee Scholarship can NOT be used for any retests. (Note that retests cost only $10.)
