

General Education Assessment

Quantitative Literacy - Student Learning Outcomes

- i. Students will be able to apply quantitative and mathematical reasoning to solve problems in diverse contexts, using a variety of methods, and communicate results accurately
- ii. Students will be able to identify, extract, and interpret relevant quantitative data from various sources to support informed decision-making and problem-solving
- iii. Students will be able to effectively communicate quantitative information by analyzing and interpreting representations of data such as graphs, charts, and tables.

Approved Sep 11, 2025