Application to the City Colleges of Chicago School of Engineering

City Colleges of Chicago offers transfer pathways for students with an interest in earning a bachelor's degree in computer science or engineering.

We offer small classes, talented instructors, comprehensive support, and learning opportunities in the classroom and beyond.

Qualified students can access guaranteed admission to The Grainger College of Engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and the Armour College of Engineering and the College of Computing at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

What Sets Us Apart

- High-quality and equitable education aligned with transfer institutions—including clear and guided pathways

- Significant savings in tuition and fees

- Financial support for qualified students qualified to work as engineering tutors, near-peer mentors, and ambassadors

- Internship partnerships with globally-recognized companies

- Undergraduate research opportunities at places like Argonne National Laboratory, Illinois Institute of Technology, Northwestern University, Princeton University, and more

- Intentional and dual advising with City Colleges and transfer institution advisors

- Memberships in distinguished professional societies (ACM, ACS, ASME, NSBE, SASE, SHPE, and SWE)

- Professional development opportunities (leadership, networking, career preparation, etc.)
