Wellness Center

The Wellness Centers at the Colleges provide support for your well-being so that you can focus on academic success: ccc.edu/wellnesscenter.
The Wellness Center at Olive-Harvey College provides counseling and other social services to support your well-being and academic success.

Personal, individual counseling offers a safe place to talk about what’s on your mind and to get support to work through life’s challenges.

Support groups and workshops address key topics important to college students. Check with the Wellness Center to learn about current offerings.

Stress and time management coaching helps you develop a plan to manage your stress and organize your day-to-day life.

Psychological testing assesses cognitive, intellectual, and psychological functioning and can help determine the presence of learning disabilities.

Referrals to community resources connect you to basic needs such as low-cost child care, emergency housing, medical services, and food pantries.

Support for survivors of relationship violence and sexual assault includes one-on-one counseling; safety planning; and referrals for medical care, legal services, and emergency child care.

To meet with one of our counselors, stop by Room 1118.
