The Library has a Canon photocopier that will make B&W and color copies. There is model 65651 in Academic Support that only does B&W copies.
The payment tower accepts bills, coins or a copy card. Change is returned. B&W copies cost $0.05; color copies cost $0.20 per side.

The copier menu is activated after you insert money or a card.

Copy cards are optional.

The same card works in the tower for the printers and photocopiers. Optionally you may activate your CCC ID to use as a payment card.
Payment Tower 2

LED screen gives instructions and shows how much money is on the card or credited to you.

Tower accepts coins in the slot on top.

Insert bills here.

Cards may be inserted here.

Change returned here.
This menu is presented after you deposit money or insert your card.

Choose “Copy” for photocopies. “Scan and Send” does not work yet.
Use this menu to choose B&W or color copies, reduce or enlarge image, set number of copies, and more.

Selecting a button will bring up another menu.
From this menu choose 1 sided or 2 sided copies and other options.
Lift the cover. Place page or book on the right side where the arrow indicates.
Using Document Feeder

Place originals face up for one sided copies. For two sided copies it does not matter.
Using Key Pad

Use the number pad if you want more than one copy. When ready hit the green start button.

Use the stop button to pause the job. A menu will pop-up asking if you want to cancel or continue the job.
To scan and send choose new destination. Optionally you may choose color or gray scale. You may make a PDF or JPG file. Hit the “Options” button for more choices.

On the next screen input your email destination.
Scanning Destination Screen

Type in the destination address from this screen. Hit “OK” when done.
Start Scanning

When ready to send the green light will be on the start button. Hit start to begin scanning and sending. The green light will flash under “Processing/Data” until the job is complete.

You are done. Don’t forget your originals.
