

HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is required for all new students. It introduces new students to Harold Washington College's academic programs, policies, and student support services. Students will also meet with Advisors to register for classes during orientation, and be able to meet other first year students!

During the orientation process you can expect to discuss:

- ▶ your education and career goals
- ▶ your graduation requirements
- ▶ the student support services available to help you succeed
- ▶ the student clubs, groups and organizations on campus

You have two options for New Student Orientation:

LIVE VIRTUAL ORIENTATION

To RSVP: Login to my.ccc.edu Student Portal → Click the Quick Access tile (bottom left) → Click the GradesFirst Icon. On your GradesFirst home screen → Click 'Get Tutoring OR New Student Orientation'
