

Department Objectives

Our goal is to develop business professionals who:

- are well prepared to meet the professional challenges of a changing local and global business environment
- use academic theory and concepts for practical application in a variety of business disciplines such as Accounting, Entrepreneurship, Management, and Computer Information Systems
- add value to institutions both public and private through their skills, ethics, integrity, and professionalism understand that, as business leaders, they may be called upon to serve their community in multiple capacities.

Student Learning Outcomes

Our goal is to develop business professionals who:

- define, explain, and evaluate basic business concepts; identify essential elements of successful business operations and apply those concepts to real world business contexts.
- identify the framework that constitutes our national and the international economic systems and the roles played by businesses, consumers, technology, and/or governments.
- critically discuss and apply business ethics in a variety of business settings, as well as recognize and challenge ethical misconduct; evaluate ethical standards and employ these standards in decision-making
- demonstrate basic and appropriate computer literacy and skills
- use critical thinking in interpreting and applying business concepts to actual business situations; demonstrate competence in basic research.

