Your Chance to Reinvent CCC…

Want to help shape the future of City Colleges? Apply now for the Fall 2012 Reinvention Task Forces. Two years into its Reinvention initiative, CCC is delivering on the promise of student-centered reforms grounded in real-world recommendations formulated by task forces made up of faculty, staff and students from our seven-college system. This is your opportunity to create change and make a difference.

Task forces for Fall 2012 will include:

- Career and Academic Program Pathways
- Teaching and Learning
- Student Support and Services
- Process, Operations and Governance

How to apply  Send an email to reinvention@ccc.edu by May 31 with the following information:

- The top two task forces you would like to work on
- A brief biography describing your skill set as it pertains to the task force
- Five of your ideas to address the challenges within your preferred task force’s focus area
- Your contact info (phone and email) so that we can follow up with you
