

City Colleges of Chicago Lactation Room Guide

City Colleges of Chicago supports all nursing mothers across our community—including employees, students, and visitors—by providing access to dedicated lactation spaces.

Each City Colleges location has a dedicated lactation room or will make accommodations for employees, students, and visiting nursing mothers.

As a City Colleges employee who is nursing or pumping, you can expect:

- Reasonable break time to express breast milk for your nursing infant
- A private, secure space in close proximity to your work area, other than a bathroom, where you can express breast milk

Read City Colleges of Chicago's Nursing Employees in the Workplace policy at www.ccc.edu/nursingmothers.

We are here to help.
