

CCC Examples of Sexual Harassment

- 1) A fellow classmate borrows a pencil in a class. Afterwards, you see them following you to many of your other classes and soon following you home, texting you constantly, and getting angry with you for talking to other classmates.
- 2) While studying in the library, a student asks to copy your work. When you refuse, they start making vulgar remarks about your clothing and make unwanted sexual advances.
- 3) A professor who continually makes jokes about one of the female student's menstrual cycle in the classroom, although she says she is uncomfortable and has asked him to stop.
- 4) A teaching assistant tells a student that if they send inappropriate photos along with their homework, the assistant will give them a better grade.
- 5) An academic advisor tells a prospective student that the advisor will "help" the prospective student (put them in already full class, give them extra credit assignments, etc) if he or she dates the advisor.
