

Did you know?

One of HWC's Gen Ed Goals is that students learn:
“To understand and respect human diversity in regard to race, ethnicity, gender, and other issues pertinent to improving human relations.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC 2005-2007 Catalog (page 128)

Did you know?

HWC Faculty believe, “...Experiences of diversity include race, ethnicity, gender, religion, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, physical attributes and disabilities, age, health, language, education, political beliefs and other differences in cultural expression and tradition.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC Faculty have committed to:

- ~Facilitate the development of a broad perspective of diversity; &
- ~Foster responsible citizenship as members of a diverse world.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC Faculty have committed to:

- ~Encourage the understanding of commonality and differences; &
- ~Provide direct and indirect experiences with various cultures.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC students can demonstrate their knowledge and appreciation of diversity when they:

“Analyze and discuss contemporary multicultural, global, and international questions in a diverse setting.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC students can demonstrate knowledge and appreciation of diversity when they:

“Identify and respect that there are various ways of thinking, communicating and interacting,” when they work in diverse groups.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC students can demonstrate their knowledge and appreciation of diversity when they:

“Evaluate diverse moral and intellectual perspectives, principles, systems and structures.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

HWC students can demonstrate their knowledge and appreciation of diversity when they:

“Articulate the value of cross-cultural campus and community activities and their impact on the lives of others.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Progress Report (November 2006)

Did you know?

93% of HWC students agree
with the statement:

“There are two sides to every issue,
and I try to look at both of them.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

28% of HWC students agree
with the statement:

“I sometimes find it difficult to see the ‘other person’s’ point of view.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

81% of HWC students agree that speaking up against social injustice is essential or important.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

77% of HWC students agree that working to end poverty is essential or important.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

60% of HWC students agree
with the statement:

“Enhancing a student’s ability to live in a multicultural society is a part of this college’s mission.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

21% of HWC students disagree
with the statement:

“I think that what generally happens to people in my racial and/or ethnic group will affect what happens in my life.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

88% of HWC students agree
with the statement:

“Women should be taken as seriously
as men in the classroom.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

18% of HWC students agree
with the statement:

“Speaking languages other than English should not be encouraged in the United States.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

70% of HWC students report having dined or shared a meal with students of a different race and/or ethnicity;

9% report never having done so.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

54% of HWC students agree that HWC “has done a good job providing programs and activities that promote an understanding of diversity.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

59% of HWC students agree that HWC “promotes respect for diversity.”

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

36% of HWC students feel they are expected to represent their race, ethnicity, gender, age, or disability group in class discussions;

33% say they do not feel that way in class.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

49% of HWC students identify their “ability to work cooperatively with diverse people as a major strength;
1% identify it as a major weakness.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

78% of HWC students claim to be very or somewhat strong in their “ability to see the world from someone else’s perspective;”

3% claim to be very or somewhat weak in that regard.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

26% of HWC students rate themselves as “average”
in academic ability;

2% identify themselves as very or somewhat weak in that regard.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

39% of HWC students rate their “tolerance of others with different beliefs” as a major strength;

4% identify themselves as very or somewhat weak in that regard.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)

Did you know?

30% of HWC students say they've often or sometimes encountered discrimination at HWC based on their race and/or ethnicity;

41% say they've never encountered such discrimination at HWC.

Whaddya Know?

Source: HWC Diversity Survey (FA 2005 Diversity Appreciation Assessment)